The regular meeting of the Twinning Committee was held tonight. Members present were William Chambres, Penny Geikler, James McCann, III, and Mary Washington. Staff present was Nancy K. Gibson, Public Information Officer.

1. The meeting was called to order at 7:30 p.m.
2. Upon motion of Ms. Washington, and approved by Committee, the minutes of the October 5, 2016, meeting were accepted.
3. 2016 Lottery Report: Mr. McCann reported two winners in October for a total payout of $50.
4. 2017 Lottery: Ms. Gibson received the 2017 lottery tickets and envelopes. After the meeting concludes, members will sort the tickets to reserve the numbers purchased last year for those same purchasers this year.
5. Under Project Reports, the following items were discussed:
 - A. Twining Archives: Ms. Gibson reminded members that the remaining centennial merchandise has been moved to an accessible location. Ms. Washington has not yet inventoried that merchandise and the T-shirts from the 2009 gym link.
 - B. Exchanges:
 - i. Scouting: Mr. McCann had no report on Boy Scout Troop 22. Ms. Washington has not yet checked with Myers Elementary School parents for potential Girl Scout contacts.
 - ii. Historical Commission/Society: Mr. McCann forwarded the latest Historical Commission eNewsletter to the UK Historical Society.
 - iii. School Link: Annette Wight advised Ms. Gibson that St. Edwards School in UK was not interested in establishing a Twinning link. Ms. Wight is willing to pursue other options but wanted to know if older students and non-religious institutions were acceptable. Members felt that students should be of similar age but differences in school types would be fine.

6. Old Business: No report.

7. New Business: Mr. McCann reported that he enjoyed a tour of the Ryerss Museum sponsored by the Cheltenham Township Adult School on Sunday, October 23. He discovered the museum has a gun made in Cheltenham UK during the 1800s on display.

8. There being no further business, upon motion of Ms. Washington and approved by Committee, the meeting was adjourned at 8:00 p.m.
